My mind has been caught up in so many things: keeping my children safe, looking for an apartment and a job, going to appointments with my attorneys and to court. Life has been so hectic that I almost can't remember when was the last time I had this much fun with my girls. Thanks to Womankind's Summer Recreational Program for children, we had water fights in the park, leaving everything behind for a moment. Their smiles and laughter remind me of what I am fighting for and keep me going. I cannot give up.
